

Great American Bike Rally RELEASE FROM LIABILITY

The Great American Bike Rally Committee welcomes your participation in the Great American Bike Rally, on Saturday, Sept 13, 2025, which will take place on the Great Miami River Trail, which connects the Cities of Hamilton, Fairfield, and surrounding areas. By choosing to participate in this non-competitive bike rally, you expressly agree to the following:

Release from Liability. You agree to not hold liable for any acts anyone associated with the Great American Bike Rally, including the Great American Bike Rally Steering Committee, City of Fairfield, City of Hamilton, Butler County Metro Parks or Boys and Girls Clubs of Hamilton and any volunteers or representatives associated with this event, and assigns, that result in you sustaining any injuries, illness, or damages whatsoever. You agree to release and forever discharge the above mentioned from all claims, injuries, damages, risks, and actions arising from any of their acts related to the run/walk, including related to any first aid, treatment, or similar care provided to you.

Assumption of Health Risks. You agree to assume the health risks of injury, illness, and damages related to your participating in this bike rally. The risks include muscular, skeletal, and cardiovascular injuries, and at worse death, depending on your particular health condition. You may want to consult a physician as to your particular health risks. Regardless, you understand that the Great American Bike Rally Committee has no information as to your particular health and other circumstances, so you are responsible and assume the risks related to your participation.

Assumption of other Risks. You agree to assume other risks, such as those related to environmental conditions associated with riding a bicycle outdoors on various terrains and in a range of weather conditions. Other risks may include public event conditions such as careless motorists or other traffic conditions near the designated route. Other risks may include unsafe or inappropriate actions or behavior by the public, including other bicyclists. You acknowledge that these and other risks may exist related to your participation in this event.

No Insurance Provided. You acknowledge the Great American Bike Rally does not carry or maintain any health, medical, or disability insurance for you. You are responsible for your own health or medical insurance coverage.

Media and Photograph Release. Enjoy the day and smile for the cameras. By participating, you grant the Great American Bike Rally the general media rights to photographic images, video, and audio recordings made the day of the Great American Bike Rally without any benefit or compensation to you.

By signing up for the GABR event you are agreeing to the terms and conditions.
